

Cassie Reilly-Boccia, MA, CSCS, USAW, TPI, OBU
Softball Strength Academy Founder, Athletes Warehouse Co-Owner
& National Champion Alabama Softball Player

Cassie Reilly-Boccia is a co-owner of Athletes Warehouse and founder of Softball Strength Academy, both located in Pleasantville, NY. Since 2014, Cassie has served athletes from the middle school to professional levels as a Sports Performance Coach specializing in strength and performance training as well as softball development. She has a Bachelors of Science in Kinesiology from the University of Alabama and a Masters in Biomechanics from the University of Northern Iowa. After graduating from Yorktown High School in 2008, Cassie was a four year starter for the Alabama Crimson Tide Softball team winning three Southeastern Conference Championships and a National Championship in her senior year. She is the author of the book, "Finished It - A Team's Journey to Winning it All" and a member of the NYS Softball Hall of Fame.