

Megan Rembielak
Founder
MegRom Softball

With a rich background in both playing and coaching, Megan Rembielak is a seasoned expert in the world of softball. A standout player at Appalachian State University, Megan served as the starting shortstop all four years at Appalachian State University, earning All-Conference honors.

Since transitioning to coaching in 2013, Megan has dedicated her career to developing young talent and sharing her extensive knowledge of softball. With a passion for excellence and a commitment to player development, Megan travels across the country, conducting over 100 clinics annually. Her expertise spans infield and outfield play, hitting, slapping, and base running, making her a versatile and invaluable resource for players at all levels.

In addition to hands-on coaching, Megan launched a YouTube channel in 2020, focusing on fundamental skills and strategic insights. Through this platform, they provide players with accessible, high-quality instructional content to help them refine their skills and elevate their game.

Whether on the field or through digital media, Megan continues to inspire and educate the next generation of softball players, fostering a love for the game and a pursuit of excellence. To learn more about Megan and MegRom Softball, visit <https://megremsoftball.com/>
